

Science is recognised as a core subject.

Children ask questions and plan their own investigations.

Science lessons inspire awe and wonder.

Children learn in and out of the classroom.

Everybody is a scientist!

